A group of 13 undergraduate students led by Professor Sunghwan Kim from chemistry department of Kyungpook National University, South Korea visited our department on June 25.

The head of the department Professor I-ming Hsing and PG coordinator Professor Minhua Shao welcomed the delegation and introduced the department and HKUST Energy Institute.

The group then toured the UG teaching lab of CBE and Materials Characterization and Preparation Facility.